In Memoriam

James Melvin Shultz, 16, died from an accidental gunshot wound while hunting in a wooded area east of Risingsun. The accident happened Friday, December 6, late in the afternoon.

Wayne Essex, 17, a neighbor and a friend of Jim's, was hunting with him. Essex said they had entered the wooded area to hunt when he saw the 20 gauge shotgun fall from under Shultz's right arm. It discharged when it struck the ground, and the shot entered the youth's chest. He died about an hour later from hemorrhage in the Fostoria City Hospital.

Jim is the son of Herschel and Mildred Shultz, Risingsun and was born September 16, 1947. He was a junior in the Lakota High School.

Surviving are his parents; a brother Gerald Paul, U. S. Navy; sisters, Judy Ann, Janice Kay, Jacqueline Sue and another brother, Joe Lee; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Shultz, Risingsun and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Snyder of Wayne.

The deceased's brother Gerald, was scheduled to dock at Norfolk, West Virginia on Tuesday following a cruise aboard the transport ship Chilton in the Caribbean Sea. He was able to arrive moments before the funeral services.

The funeral was Tuesday, December 10 at the St. Paul's EUB Church, Risingsun, with Rev. Clarence Carnahan officiating. Burial was in Bradner Cemetery with Sage Funeral Home, Bradner, in charge of arrangements.

Plenty of Money

Hubert G. Winthrop has decided to give an award of First Citizen to Grandma Baker. She is pleased, much to the consternation of her Grandson, Arnold who has discovered she has unknowingly become a counterfeiter. Arnold is even more concerned when he becomes involved with Sally, his long-term fiancee, the F.B.I. and some tough gangsters from Chicago.

Things are worked out fine in the end. Grandma gives the counterfeit plates to the gangsters who are "graduates" from Leavenworth; the gangsters are captured by the F.B.I. and returned to their Alma Mater; Arnold and Sally finally decide to get married; and Grandma gets her First Citizen's Award. However, being very interested in art and her charities she turns to stocks and bonds.
